

MR. FRANCISCO JAVIER GALÁN SERRANO
(Salamanca, 1946)

Independent Director of Iberdrola Renovables Energía, S.A.U.

Advanced Degree in Forestry Engineering from the Polytechnic University of Madrid and Diploma in Planning and Land Management from the School of Engineering of Roads, Canals and Ports of the Polytechnic University of Madrid (UPM). He is an official within the Grade of Forestry Engineers of the National Institute for the Conservation of Nature (ICONA) of the Ministry of Agriculture.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE FOR PERFORMING HIS DUTIES AT IBERDROLA RENOVABLES ENERGÍA, S.A.U.:

He has extensive experience in the Public Sector and his professional career has been closely linked to environmental issues. He has been Deputy Government Representative in Salamanca, a position that he occupied from 2012 to 2016. He has also held positions of responsibility in the Provincial Services of ICONA in Zamora and Salamanca, in the Territorial Environmental Service of the Regional Government of Castilla and León and the Territorial Environmental Service of Salamanca.

He has been Associate Professor in the Faculty of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences at the University of Salamanca, and has written and executed more than three hundred hydrological-forestry restoration projects; riverbank restoration and torrent control; forest infrastructure and other environmental issues.

He has chaired numerous lectures on environmental quality, urban planning, hunting, inland fishing and forestry. He is a member of the Provincial Committee of Historical and Artistic Heritage.